Northern Rivers Hosts "Ready2Learn" 853 Special Education School Awareness

ALBANY– Lawmakers and education officials will join hundreds of students and staff at Parsons Child & Family Center's Neil Hellman School's "Ready2Learn" on September 16. "Ready2Learn" is a statewide celebration in recognition of New York State's 853 special education schools.

Please join us for a tour, picnic lunch, and an opportunity to meet the students and educational team of the Neil Hellman School. A breakfast event will also be held that morning at Northeast Parent & Child Society's School @ Northeast in Schenectady. Attendees will receive information on the clinical, educational and therapeutic programs available to the 150 students in grades 1-12 who attend the school.

Please contact Eugene White if you are interested in attending, or would like to speak to a student or educational leader.

DATE: Friday, September 16

TIME: 12:00 Noon

PLACE: 60 Academy Road, Albany, NY (Parsons Child & Family Center Campus)

About Northern Rivers Family of Services:

Northern Rivers Family of Services is the parent organization to Parsons Child & Family Center and Northeast Parent & Child Society. Together, we are a family of human service agencies who work together to provide Life changing care to children, adults, and families. Our quality of care, depth of programs, combined size and passion for the mission give us the strength to make positive change in our communities. Together, our 1,300-strong workforce serves 11,000 children and families throughout 40 counties each year. For more information, call 518.426.2600 or visit northernrivers.org.
