TRAINING NEWS LINK

September 2019-October 2019

SATRI extends a warm welcome to our new Project Manager for Residential and Educational Training, Stephen Hall. Stephen will oversee the ARC Implementation project, as well as be actively involved in the coordination of all training within these programs.

Stephen brings a vast amount of experience with him to Northern Rivers. He comes to us as the former Coordinator of Training for Berkshire farms, where he facilitated trainings agency wide to help keep staff in compliance with state mandates, as well as enhance their skill set to better provide services. Stephen also championed Sanctuary Implementation at Berkshire farms, and is well versed in trauma theory, as well as working with large groups to immerse concepts into the culture. We are very excited to welcome him to the team!

Diagnostic Classification of Mental Health and Developmental Disorders of Infancy and Early Childhood (DC:0-5™) : New York State

As part of the Preschool Development Grant Birth through Five Initiative (NYS B5), the New York Center for Child Development ( NYCCD) and the New York State Office of Mental Health (OMH) in collaboration with CTAC, are pleased to announce upcoming trainings on the ZERO TO THREE DC:0-5™, Diagnostic Classification of Mental Health and Developmental Disorders of Infancy and Early Childhood.

DC:0-5 is a research and clinically-informed multi-axial diagnostic system that provides a comprehensive guide to the clinical disorders found in young children. New York State plans to make DC:0-5 the recommended diagnostic tool for all children birth to age 5.

This comprehensive training is specifically designed for participants who are directly involved in the developmental and mental health evaluation and diagnosis of children birth to five years of age.

This training provides history and background around the need for and development of a specialized diagnostic classification system for infancy and early childhood, as well as approaches to diagnosis from an Infant Mental Health perspective which is developmentally informed, relationship based, contextual and culturally competent.

Participants will learn about the multi-axial classification system and gain an understanding of each: Axis I Clinical Disorders, Axis II Relational Context, Axis III Physical Health Conditions and Considerations, Axis IV Psychosocial Stressors, and Axis V Developmental Competence.

Participants will have the opportunity to participate in Community of Practice calls following the training for support on use of DC:0-5™ in their practice.

Participation in this training is free of charge and participants will receive a complimentary DC:0-5 manual. Lunch will be served on Day 1.

This training will offer 11 CE contact hours for licensed social workers and LMHCs through the NYU Silver School of Social Work. Participants must attend both days to receive full credit. Attendees will be able to access certificates online following the training.

Register early since capacity is limited. Additional trainings will be offered based on demand in each location.
